

Please don't take away my satellite radio - where we live we often do not get clear signals from local stations and satellite radio provides us with needed information and enjoyment!